Whose data do we hold?

We may hold data about the following people:

- Employees
- Clients
- Suppliers and service providers
- Advisers, consultants and other professional experts
- Enquirers.
- Industry professionals

What data will we collect?

We will only collect information from you that is relevant to our relationship with you. In particular we may collect the following information from you which is defined as 'personal data':

- Personal details
- Financial details, as appropriate
- Business activities

Basis for processing

The basis on which we process your personal data is one or more of the following:

- It is necessary for the performance of our contract with you
- It is necessary for us to comply with a legal obligation
- It is in our legitimate interests to do so
- You have given us your consent (this can be withdrawn at any time by advising our data protection officer by sending an email to: info@corbett.co.uk).

How will we use your data?

We may use your information for the following purposes:

- Provision of legal services including advising and acting on behalf of clients
- Promotion of our goods and services
- Provision of education and training to customers and clients
- Maintaining accounts and records

Who will we share your information with?

Under the SRA Code of Conduct there are very strict rules about who we can share your information with and this will normally be limited to other people who will assist with your matter. This may include:

- Barristers and other lawyers
- Experts
- Researchers
- Courts and tribunals

Where you authorise us we may also disclose your information to others.

How long will we keep your information for?

- We will only retain personal data for as long as is necessary for the purpose we are using it for.
- We will normally keep your information throughout the period of time that we do work on a matter and afterwards for a period of at least six years as we are required to do by law and also by the regulations that apply to us.

Transfers to third countries

- We may from time to time transfer your personal data to a country outside of the EEA.
- Normally this will be necessary for the performance of your contract with us or for the exercise or defence of legal claims on your behalf.
- Sometimes we may transfer for other reasons and we will ensure that appropriate safeguards are in place at all times.

Security arrangements

- We shall ensure that all the information that you provide to us is kept secure using appropriate technical and organisational measures.
- In the event of a personal data breach we have in place procedures to ensure that the effects of such a breach are minimised and shall liaise with the ICO and with you as appropriate.
- More information is available from the data protection officer by sending an email to info@corbett.co.uk.
